Gland tightening instruction

If there is leakage between the gland and the bonnet or round the stem, tighten the nuts clockwise keeping the T-screw in place, see picture. This will tighten the packing material round the stem and stop the leakage. Tighten the nuts on both sides to get an even pressure on the packing material.